of charity, and also whether the Sirsakoota could allotment can bear such an additional charge; and that officer has submitted a report thereon together with the Vernacular records bearing on the subject.

Mr S Dharma Rao, Ag. Amildar of the Nanjangud Taluk reports that he saw the petitioner and found that she was aged 60 or 70 years, that her vision was defective and that she could not move about. He further states that her son who was protecting her died some time back, that since his death, there is none to protect her, that she has 2 grand-sons, one of whom is without any means of living & has gone somewhere and the other who remains at Nanjangud has no post or property to live upon. He further states that the petitioner told him that she could not go to Sirsakoota and mess in it, as she could not move about and was prevented from messing owing to caste prejudices. He adds that it is not usual to Muzrai Secretary's Remarks.

The Sivakoota expenditure is always in excess of the Tasdik allotment and much difficulty is experienced in meeting it. The Ratri chattram is -- closed during the last 4 or 5 days in a month owing -- to insufficiency of funds. I regret therefore that it it is not possible to do anything although her case ap -pears to be a hard one.
